In this narrative portion of the nomination, you will support your nomination using 250 words or less in the following categories: Introduction of the Candidate, Impact to the Community, Commitment to Innovation, Commitment to Users, and Commitment to the Profession. The award parameter is the previous 18 months. It is recommended to write each of these answers on a separate document and copy/paste them into this form instead of typing them directly into the form in order to ensure your work is saved.

Introduction of the Candidate: Provide a short overview of the librarian being nominated and your reason for nomination. (250 words or less)

Impact to the Community: How has this individual contributed to the local service population, community and/or institution? How has this individual contributed to the larger Wisconsin community? (250 words or less)

Commitment to Innovation: How has this individual remained current or relevant to meet the needs of the local community? (250 words or less)

Commitment to Users: How has this individual demonstrated commitment or engagement to their users or service area? (250 words or less)

Commitment to the Profession: How does this individual have a track record of supporting the profession, libraries, and/or lifelong learning? (250 words or less)
