WAPL 2025 Features:

Sessions organized by areas of interest

Reception and social at the beautiful Oshkosh Public Library

Networking opportunities with library colleagues

Breakout sessions with library professionals sharing best practices and new innovations

Keynote sessions focused on a diverse array of contemporary topics important to the public library community

Are you excited to move your public library's services forward? If so, you're invited to join us at the Wisconsin Association of Public Libraries (WAPL) Annual Conference in Oshkosh, WI from April 30 - May 2, 2025! This year's conference theme is—you guessed it—Forward. This is not just the Wisconsin State Motto, but a call to action. When we come together to learn from the creativity, innovation, and resourcefulness of our peers, we leave inspired to make the changes we want to see in our own communities.

And I promise you: there is no shortage of inspiring programs at this year's conference! In addition to a well-rounded slate of engaging breakout sessions that run the gamut from creating AI usage policies to providing top-notch reading recommendations for Horror fanatics, we are welcoming several phenomenal keynote speakers. Past ALA President Loida Garcia-Febo will kick off the conference by giving us tools for navigating uncertain times in our libraries. Author and Geology Professor Marcia Bjornerud will talk about reading the world around us (followed by a book signing!). Jeanne Wolfe, Director of the Ben Guthrie - Lac Du Flambeau Public Library, alongside a panel of tribal library representatives, will raise our cultural awareness and understanding of Wisconsin's tribal communities. On Friday afternoon, the conference will close with a legal information Q&A with Professor, Lawyer, and Librarian, Tomas Lipinski—so, be sure to come prepared with any burning legal questions you might have regarding public libraries!

Perhaps best of all, though, is that the WAPL Annual Conference is punctuated by plentiful break times, mealtimes, and activities that allow you to connect, learn from, and socialize with public library peers from across the state. Participants are encouraged to join us Wednesday evening to kick off the conference in a relaxed setting. A "South of the Border" buffet will be served and a cash bar will be available at the kick-off celebration. On Thursday evening, attendees will have the opportunity to participate in an exclusive tour and networking reception at the historic Oshkosh Public Library.

I sincerely hope you will join me at the 2025 WAPL Annual Conference. I look forward to welcoming you and learning how you want to move your library forward.
